

Costa Rica 2012

Inviting All Fishermen !

We are moving to our 16th season of Sailfish and Marlin fishing in Costa Rica and our dates have been set. For those who have not joined as in the past, this venture takes you to the town of Quepos. Quepos, Costa Rica has long held an international reputation as one of the hottest spots in the world for big game fishing. This town, actually a small city, is situated on the central Pacific coast and is directly south of Costa Rica's capital San Jose. It is approximately a 3 hour drive by car or a 20 minute flight.

The 2012 season schedule is as follows:

Thursday, January 26 thru Thursday, February 02
Thursday, February 02 thru Thursday, February 09
Thursday, February 09 thru Thursday, February 16
Thursday, February 16 thru Thursday, February 24
Thursday, February 24 thru Thursday, March 01
Thursday, March 01 thru Thursday, March 08
